ONWARD MARCH . . . A wide array of spring sports action this, the predominant majority of which pits CCAA members against non-conference competition. In softball, CAL STATE, SAN BERNARDINO and UC RIVERSIDE host top-ranked and defending national champion Humboldt State (CSUSB earlier today) and UCR on Tuesday, March 14. In baseball, CAL STATE DOMINGUEZ HILLS returns from a week-long trip to Hawaii to host Division I Bradley, marking the first of many intersectional battles. SONOMA STATE and SAN FRANCISCO STATE do battle in league play - first in Rohnert Park on Tuesday and Friday; then a high-noon doubledip in The City on Saturday, March 18. A very light week in women's tennis has only four non-league matches on the schedule. The all-encompassing sport of track & field transcends the travel itinerary this week as the CCAA members cover nearly every region of the Golden State for invitational action.

CCAA NEWS AND NOTES . . . CAL STATE BAKERSFIELD'S MEN'S SWIMMING team won its 10th NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP last week with a convincing 57-point win over runner-up Drury. Senior Derek Guffey broke the NCAA Division II record in the 200 backstroke with an national-championship time of 1:45.53 to lead the way . . . The championship increases the number of NCAA Championships won by CCAA members at the time they were members to 733, which ranks first among Division II conferences. UC DAVIS finished fourth overall on the men's side and 12th in the women's competition, and Bakersfield's women finished 15th for its eighth top 20 finish in nine years . . . CAL POLY POMONA named Ky Kugler its Interim Athletic Director, effective April 1 through June 30. Kugler, currently an Assistant Athletic Director at Pomona, will replace the retiring Karen Miller . . . UC DAVIS' indoor track & field teams finished third (men) and eighth (women) at the NCAA Division II Championships in Boston last week. Trevor Bolter won the NCAA D-II Indoor crown in the pole vault (16-8.75) and Jennifer Swanson duplicated the feat on the women's side (12-3.5). All nine Aggies competing in the national championships earned All-America honors.
